

Julia Amies

Julia earned her magna cum laude Bachelor of Science degree in Business and Economics at Northwest Missouri University, her CPA certificate in 1997 (CPA), her Certificate of Educational Achievement in Estate Planning in 1998 (NATEP), and her Certified Specialist in Estate Planning credentials in 1999. (CSEP). Her career path took her from private secretary to secondary teacher, then the owner of an accounting firm before she retired from a position as legal assistant in the law firm of McGrath, North, Mullin & Kratz, P.C., in Omaha, Nebraska, in 2004. Her work experience at McGrath North covered all aspects of estate and wealth transfer planning, retitling, and compliance; small business reporting and compliance; personal, fiduciary, gift and estate taxation; corporate formation and compliance; estate and trust administration; and financial analysis.

Since her retirement, Julia has enjoyed having time to indulge her passion for gardening and painting, and has traveled extensively internationally, having visited in over one hundred countries. Julia is married to Gerald Amies. She is the mother of three and grandmother to eight.

Julia has served St. Timothy's as coordinator for its support of Episcopal Relief and Development, and as lector/intercessor. She currently serves on St. Timothy's Endowment Fund Committee.
